

Museum Educator Paid Internship Description

Description:

The National Museum of Industrial History seeks outgoing individuals to join our team as Museum Educators. Serving more than 3,000 students per year, the Museum's education department uses people-centered and culturally responsive practices to develop and implement programs that provide equitable access to the Museum and its resources.

Museum Educators will facilitate and lead educational programming and engage and excite our audience in Science, Technology, Engineering, Art/Design and Math (STEAM) and social history content. Supervised by the Education and Program Coordinator (EPC), with additional resources from the Manager of Education & DEAI Coordinator, the Museum Educator paid interns support all aspects of the administration and delivery of the Museum's education programs which include K-12 on-site field trips, K-12 virtual programs (distance learning), scout programs, family and community programs, outreach events, and more.

To Apply:

Send resume and short answers (under 300 words each) to the following questions to the Education Department at education@nmih.org.

Questions:

1. What interests you about our Museum and what made you apply for this internship?
2. Describe your favorite museum experience/program/field trip you've participated in.

Supervisor: Katie Rymon, Education and Program Coordinator (EPC)

Qualifications and Skills Preferred:

- Pursuing or completed a B.A. in Education, Museum Studies, History, Engineering, or related field
- Hands-on teaching experience, working with children's groups, or community-based programs
- Confident with speaking in front of groups and ability to represent the Museum professionally
- Must be outgoing, have a willingness to learn, and bring joy and enthusiasm to the workspace
- Ability to work a flexible schedule, including some weekends and/or evenings as necessary

National Museum of Industrial History

Benefits:

- Credit towards coursework
- Develop experience working on a wide range of informal education and learning projects
- Gain hands-on training in museum education
- Participate in professional development and exposure to a range of museum careers and practices
- Grow your professional network

Compensation Range: $10.00-$12.00 per hour